

CRIC 2020 Annual Conference on-line 21st – 23rd September

“Disruption and the multi-lateral system after COVID-19”

Programme

Monday 21st September

- 13h30      Opening and Introduction – John Alderdice
- 13h45      Can the current multilateral system be developed or even maintained in a post-COVID world? - Sundeep Waslekar (Strategic Foresight Group, India)
- 14h30      The psycho-political impact of the pandemic on global politics – Deniz Ulke Aribogan (Üsküdar University, Turkey)
- 15h30      Tea/Coffee
- 16h00      From conflict to Covid: how shared experiences shape our world and how they could improve it - Harvey Whitehouse (University of Oxford, UK)
- 16h45      Information Operations - Richard Davis (ARTIS International, USA)
- 17h30      Close of Session

Tuesday 22nd September

- 13h30      America at the crossroads: Racial polarization or interracial partnership - Michael Cowan (New Orleans, USA)
- 14h15      Mediation in a disrupted post-COVID world - Itonde Kakoma and Edward Marques (CMI, Finland)

- 15h30      Tea/Coffee
- 16h00      Where are we now with the Colombian Peace Process? – Alberto Fergusson (Bogota, Colombia)
- 16h40      Measuring Peace – Richard Caplan (University of Oxford, UK)
- 17h30      An update on developments with CRIC – John Alderdice (Director of CRIC)
- 18h00      Close of Session

Wednesday 23rd September

- 09h00      White Supremacist Extremism and its Implications: A Southeast Asian View - Kumar Ramakrishna (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)
- 09h40      Hindu Extremism with particular emphasis on South Asia - Mohammed Sinan Siyech (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)
- 10h15      Peace in the Age of Chaos - Steve Killelea (Institute for Economics and Peace, Australia)
- 11h00      Tea/Coffee
- 11h30      So what have we learnt about disruption and the multi-lateral system after COVID-19? – John Alderdice (University of Oxford, UK) and Scott Atran (ARTIS International, France/USA)
- 13h00      Close of Conference